VERMONT AND TUBERCULOSIS.

W. A. Eddy, a patient at the Vermont sanitarium, is moved by reading an edi- fog. The substance of his writings was torial on "The Crusade Against Tubercu-similarly simple and edifying—"con-losis" in one of the state papers, to crete" with human experience. The acwrite to the Rutland Herald. Mr. Eddy study and practice of what its devotees

Redfield Proctor, a sanitarium for the serenity and assurances that all things treatment of tuberculosis was opened in work together for good, in which the December, 1907, at Pittsford. This sanitarium has accommodations for between ten. They have shed a clear light on 30 and 40 patients. It is a private in-stitution; it is the Vermont sanitarium human life and brought comfort and

"Now, for the cursory comparison of this state's work along these lines with that of a few other states. Maryland is expending $275,000 for a new state sanitarium which will accommodate 250 pa tients at the nominal cost of 50 cents per day. There are six other sanatoria all of which are supported by state, municipal and private charity.

"The Pennsylvania state South Mountain Sanitarium' was made possible by an appropriation of $600,000 by the legislature of 1907. This sanitarium is 'fo citizens of Pennsylvania suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis and unable financially to go to private sanatoria." There ure accommodations for 350 patients and the only charge is for laundry. Without including the Philadelphia General hospital, which furnishes 300 beds for tubercular patients, ALL of which are free, and the White Haven Free Hospital for Poor Consumptives, which has a capacity of 200, there are in the state of Pennsylvania about 700 other beds at the service of persons suffering from tuberon-

"Massachusetts is also in the anti-tuberculosis campaign. The Massachusetts state sanitarium at Rutland accommodates 350 patients. 'The legislature of 1907 provided for the appointment of a commission of nine who should purchase sites, approve plans, make contracts, se-lect superintendents, and supervise the construction of three sanatoria for tuberculosis patients, each sanitarium to have accommodations for not less than 150 patients! Besides the sanatoria already mentioned there are in Massachusett over 20 others giving service to hundreds of patients.

information. To be exact, Vermont, as a state, stands so far back in the processing the stands of the processing the sion that those in front cannot be seen, and thus the road seems clear. With only 25 state beds, in any manner whatsoever at the disposal of tuberculosis pa-tients—and those 25 beds in an insane asylum, Vermont should rather hang her head in shame, than to be spouting egotistical panegyrica through the editorial columns of one of her leading newspa-

"That there is an ever increasing need of more accommodations for tuberculosis patients in this state needs no proof."

This is a strong indictment against us, but it is a good thing to be told of our fallings once in a while. But if Mr. Eddy's letter will help to increase the efforts against this dread disease, it will have served a good purpose.

CURRENT COMMENT

Warning to Republicans.

Congress is making a brilliant attempt to revise the tariff, not only without paint but without any adequate reduc ion of duties. The Republicans in Congress should remember the history of the Democratic revision of 1803. The Demo-The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Grover Cleveland and Chairman Wilson of the House ways and means committee they undertook to do an honest job, but Gorman, Murphy, Hill and other real bosses of the Democratic party, sold out to the trusts and protected interests.

The result is history. JINGLES AND JESTS

Man.

How wenderful is man! He rides With outspread wings upon the air He puts a harness on the tides And finds his sorrow hard to bear When he begins to lose his hair.

He shoots a smokeless, noiseless gun And thus o'creomes his bitter foe; He girds the earth, he weighs the sun, And uses lauguage that is low Because some one steps on his toe.

He speaks across the gulfs of space Waste lands be makes superbly rich And careleasly pours in his face. Things of a fiery nature which Extend him in the recking ditch.

He joins the coans, spans the plains, And sets leviathans affoat; The lord of all things he remains, He studies planets far remote, And lets a ward boss cast his vote.

How wonderful is man! He walks Upon the bottom of the sea, And usually when he talks Exhibits foolishness that he Supposes to be wit, ah, me! -Chicago Daily News.

THE TEST OF TIME

"How long have they been in business?" An answer to this question is necessary to fix the standing of any business house. Before any concern can claim high rank in the business world, its stability must be proven by The Test of Time. And the longer it has been in business with an honorable record, the higher it is rated by public opinion.

In the banking world, no less than in other lines of business, time must test the strength of any institution. It takes time to show whether the loans of a bank are good, whether its management is conservative, whether its policy is safe, whether it can combine these important features, and be progressive.

This bank has a record of twenty-four years successful business, twenty-four years of satisfactory service to the people, and with one year more from the 13th day of April this institution will have completed a Quarter of a Century of business, Being the Oldest Bank for Savings in the City of Barre, and one of the most important factors in the early development of the Granite industry, as well as in the growth and development of the City of Barre, during this entire period.

With nearly 4,500 depositors it still endeavors to treat its patrons with the same prompt attention and courtesy, and invites all or a portion of your banking business.

Deposits made on or before April 6th will draw interest from April 1st, free of taxes under $2,000, in accordance with the State Law of Vermont.
